

BC PEOPLE FIRST SOCIETY – MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

BC People First Society (BCPF) Membership is for people in British Columbia – who identify as having a physical, developmental, intellectual, or learning disability - and support self-advocacy efforts and our mission to advocate for the rights, wants, and needs of people labelled with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Member applications are approved by the BCPF Board of Directors. We respect your privacy and will not share your confidential information taken below for membership purposes with others.

BC People First advocates for “Nothing about US, without US”, affordable housing for all, transit accessibility, relationship rights, meaningful employment, and more! We do this through workshops, presentations, letter-writing campaigns, public speaking by our members, community engagement, and the empowerment of Self-Advocates across the province. We are a strong, independent society that is run BY people who have been labelled FOR people who have been labelled. Support our mission and help grow the People First movement in British Columbia by applying to be a BCPF Member! Membership is free. Get involved. Have your say.
